

2021 FROG HOLLOW CHAPBOOK CONTEST

OCTOBER 1 TO DECEMBER 31, 2021

WINNER WILL BE ANNOUNCED BY MARCH 31, 2022

This contest is free to enter.

SUBMISSIONS — PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

We are interested in receiving materials from all Canadian nationals, including racialized / Indigenous / genderqueer / seniors / disabled / financially challenged...

Submitters cannot have a chapbook previously published by Frog Hollow Press.

Poems written in English - translations welcome but there must be an English translation.

Manuscript should be 12-30 pages in length, not including the title page, acknowledgements, etc., and must be submitted in .doc format.

NO .PDFs — if received in .pdf format, we will not acknowledge or respond.

EMAILS ONLY - no print submissions.

DO NOT INCLUDE IDENTIFYING DATA IN YOUR MS.ATTACHMENT
if you do, you will be disqualified.

Do not include your manuscript if you intend to republish the material within a year in a trade collection or other edition. This means “within a year” of our possible publication of your work, not from the time you send it to us for consideration in the contest.

We look forward to reading your work.

Last year’s contest was a great success, with a handful of books published in addition to our winner. We hope to have the same success this year!

The winner of the contest will be offered our standard contract to publish with Frog Hollow Press.
